

ANNUAL ACTIVITIES REPORT OF THE APPOINTMENTS COMMITTEE OF EUSKALTEL, S.A. FOR 2020

1. Introduction

At its meeting on 2 June 2020, the Company's Board of Directors unanimously adopted the resolution to amend certain articles of the Board of Directors Regulations to bring the content thereof into line with the content of the Articles of Association. In doing so, the amendment of the Articles of Association referring to the existence of two committees – the Remunerations Committee and the Appointments Committee – and the approval and entry into force of the regulations of these two committees has been incorporated into the wording of the Board of Directors Regulations.

The Appointments Committee of Euskaltel, S.A. is an informative and consultative body, without executive powers, which is authorised to inform, advise and propose certain actions within its remit.

For the purposes of this report, the actions taken by the Appointments Committee from the aforementioned date to 31 December 2020 are set out herein.

This scope of application applies both to the parent company and the subsidiaries comprising the Euskaltel Group.

The main task of the Committee is to assist, inform and prepare proposals for the Board of Directors on matters assigned thereto at any given time, both by virtue of the Company's Articles of Association and the Board of Directors Regulations and those of the Appointments Committee.

In accordance with Articles 4 and 26 of the Company's Board of Directors Regulations, the Board will perform annual assessments, using the external and internal means it deems necessary in each case, on the performance of its committees based on the reporting they issue.

On the one hand, Article 22 of the Regulations of the Appointments Committee establishes that it is this Committee's obligation to report at the General Shareholders' Meeting on those issues raised thereat by shareholders regarding matters within its purview. It shall prepare an annual report on its activities, which shall be made available to the shareholders, following the approval thereof by the Board of Directors on occasion of the call to the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting.

This Annual Activities Report of the Euskaltel Appointments Committee for 2020 has been prepared as part of the aforementioned assessment process and is intended for the perusal of the Company's shareholders. It includes the significant events occurring between the date it was established and 31 December 2020.

2. Regulatory framework

The Appointments Committee is currently governed by the following:

- Article 529n of the consolidated text of the Spanish Companies Act, approved by Royal Legislative Decree 1/2010 of 2 July.
- Articles 63 and 65 of the Bylaws.
- Article 18 of the Board of Directors Regulations.
- Regulations of the Appointments Committee
- Technical Guide 1/2019 of the National Securities Market Commission on Appointment and Remuneration Committees

3. Main functions and competencies

Pursuant to article 5 of its Regulations, the Appointments Committee performs the following basic duties with respect to the Company itself as well as the subsidiaries of the Group:

- a) Assess the necessary competencies, knowledge and experience of the Board of Directors. For these purposes, it shall define the functions and skills necessary in candidates for vacancies and assess the time and dedication needed to effectively perform their tasks.
- b) Set a target for gender balance on the Board of Directors and draw up guidelines on how to reach this target.
- c) Raise to the Board of Directors the proposed independent director appointments for designation by co-option or for their submission to the General Shareholders' Meeting, as well as proposals for re-election or dismissal of these directors by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
- d) Report on the proposed appointment of the remaining board members for designation by co-option or for their submission to the General Shareholders' Meeting, as well as proposals for their re-election or dismissal by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
- e) Report on the proposed appointment or dismissal of senior management and the basic conditions of their contracts.
- f) Examine and organise the succession of the Chair of the Board of Directors and the Company's CEO and, if applicable, propose candidates for the Board of Directors in order that succession be conducted in an orderly, planned fashion.

The specific functions of the Appointments Committee are the following (articles 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the Regulations of the Appointments Committee):

Powers regarding the composition of the Board of Directors and of the committees thereof and regarding the process of appointments to internal posts within the Board of Directors and of senior officers

- Advise the Board of Directors regarding the most appropriate configuration thereof and of its committees as regards size and balance among the various classes of directors existing at any given time. To that end, the Committee shall review the structure of the Board of Directors and of its committees on a regular basis, particularly when vacancies occur within such bodies.
- Report on the proposal for the individual representative of a corporate director.
- Report on and review the criteria that should be followed in composing the Board of Directors and in selecting candidates, defining their required duties and abilities and evaluating the time and dedication required for the proper performance of their work, taking care to ensure that when new vacancies are filled or new directors are appointed, the selection procedures are free from any implicit bias involving any kind of discrimination, and particularly from any bias that may hinder the selection of female directors, establishing a goal for the representation thereof on the Board of Directors and preparing guidelines on how to achieve this goal.
- Endeavour to ensure that the persons to be appointed to the office of director by means of any procedure meet the requirements of respectability, capability, expertise, competence, experience, qualifications, training, availability, and commitment to their duties and that they are not affected, directly or indirectly, by any of the instances of disqualification, prohibition, conflict or opposition of interests to the corporate interest as set forth in provisions of a general nature.
- Report on and make proposals regarding the appointment or removal of the members of each of the committees, verifying and confirming compliance with the requirements of knowledge and experience in connection with the purview of the committee in question, and particularly as regards the Audit and Control Committee.
- Report on or formulate proposals relating to the appointment or removal of the Chair of the Board of Directors and any CEO of the Company.
- Examine or organise the succession of the Chair of the Board of Directors and the CEO of the Company and, if applicable, make proposals to the Board of Directors so that said succession occurs in an orderly and planned manner.
- Report on or formulate proposals from the Chair of the Board of Directors relating to the appointment or removal of the Deputy-Chair of the Board of Directors.
- If the Chair of the Board of Directors performs executive duties, submit to the Board of Directors a proposal for the appointment of a lead independent director and report on proposals for such director's removal.
- Report on proposals from the Chair of the Board of Directors or formulate proposals relating to the appointment or removal of the Secretary and Deputy-Secretary of the Board of Directors.
- Ensure that non-executive directors have sufficient time available to properly perform their duties.

- Report on proposals relating to the appointment, promotion, or removal of senior officers, as well as proposals to revise and amend the organisational chart and allocation of responsibilities within the Company.
- On an annual basis, verify compliance with the Director Selection Policy and report thereon in the Annual Corporate Governance Report.
- Investigate and report, when appropriate, to the Board of Directors on the selection, appointment of directors and senior executives of the Company and its group.

For the purposes of these regulations, the term "senior executives" is understood to mean those executives who report directly to the Company's Board of Directors or CEO, if there is one, and, in any event, the Company's Head of Internal Audit.

- Issue such reports and take such actions within its purview as are requested by the Board of Directors or the Chair thereof.

Powers regarding the selection of candidates for director

- Select possible candidates who might be appointed as directors of the Company and submit its proposals or reports, as applicable, to the Board of Directors through its Chair.
- Submit to the Board of Directors proposals for the appointment of independent directors (for appointment by co-option or for submission to a decision of the shareholders at a General Shareholders' Meeting).
- Verify compliance with the specific requirements for independent directors provided by law and the internal rules of the Company, and gather adequate information regarding their personal qualities, experience and knowledge as well as on their actual availability.
- At the request of the Chair of the Board of Directors or any other member of the Board of Directors, report on the proposed appointment of other directors (for appointment by co-option or for submission to a decision of the shareholders at a General Shareholders' Meeting).

Powers regarding the evaluation and re-election of directors

- Establish and supervise an annual programme for continuous evaluation and review of the qualifications, training, and, if applicable, independence, as well as of ongoing compliance with the requirements of respectability, suitability, expertise, competence, availability and commitment to their duties that must be satisfied in order to serve as director and as a member of a particular committee, and propose to the Board of Directors such measures as it deems advisable in this regard, with the power to collect any information or documentation that it deems necessary or appropriate to such end.
- Participate in the annual performance assessment process regarding the Chair of the Board of Directors and of any CEO of the Company.
- Prior to the end of the term for which a director has been appointed, examine the advisability of the director's re-election, as well as the director's continuance, if applicable, on the committees of the Board of Directors of which such director is a member.

- Verify that the director to be re-elected continues to comply with the general requirements applicable to all directors of the Company pursuant to law, as well as evaluate the quality of work and dedication to office of the director in question during the preceding term of office, and specifically such director's respectability, suitability, expertise, competence, experience, qualifications, availability and commitment to the duties entrusted thereto.
- Once the procedures described in the preceding sub-sections have been completed, submit to the Board of Directors its proposal (in the case of independent directors) or report (in the case of the other directors) regarding the re-election of directors.

Powers regarding the removal and termination of directors

- Report to the Board of Directors regarding proposed removals due to breach of the duties inherent to the position of director or due to a director becoming affected by supervening circumstances of mandatory resignation or termination.
- Report to the Board of Directors regarding proposals to adopt any measures, such as opening internal investigations, and proposals to remove a director from their post (either due to dismissal or resignation), because the director is affected by circumstances, related or unrelated to their own work in the Company, that could prejudice the Company's reputation or credit and, in particular, where the director is being investigated in a criminal case.
- Propose the removal of directors in the event of disqualification, prohibition, structural conflict of interest or any other grounds for resignation or termination, pursuant to law or the internal rules of the Company.
- For the purposes set forth in the preceding sub-sections, request the information or documents it deems necessary or appropriate of the directors, the individuals that are to represent the corporate directors and, in the case of proprietary directors, the shareholders that have proposed, requested or determined the appointment thereof.

4. Committee members

The Appointments Committee is composed of the following three external Directors (two independent and one proprietary):
