Information on procedures and systems to help follow the General Meeting of Shareholders

In order to make it easier to follow the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and to achieve a broader dissemination thereof, the entire meeting will be recorded and the live and delayed broadcasting of the meeting will be available to the public on the Company's website (www.euskaltel.com).

By entering the premises where the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders is to be held, attendees consent to their image being taken and reproduced (including voice) and the processing of their personal data through such means.

The Company will also provide the mechanisms required for simultaneous interpretation of the contributions made in Spanish into Euskera (Basque) and English.
